

The Australian Staff Band.

The Australian Staff Band rendered such valuable assistance at Commissioner Cadman's recent meetings, at Melbourne, that he remarked, "I've never had a Band in my life that gave such splendid assistance as these dear boys."

They also accompanied Mrs. McKie to Brighton for the Harvest Festival. (The Bandsman and Songster, June 1, 1907)